HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE RAMESH RANGANATHAN

WRIT PETITION NO.21027 OF 1994

ORDER:

Despite the writ petition having been posted for orders, none appears on behalf of the petitioner.

Learned Standing Counsel for the respondents would point out to the specific averment in the affidavit filed in support of the writ petition that the petitioner had joined as a Sweeper on 01-03-1991 and continued as such till 31-08-1994. The learned Standing Counsel would submit that even if the averments in the affidavit are accepted to be true, since the petitioner has not rendered the minimum required five years of service to claim regularization under G.O.Ms.No.212 dated 22-04-1994, the petitioner is not entitled to the relief sought for in the writ petition.

The learned standing counsel would further submit that since no interim orders were passed in the writ petition, the services of the writ petitioner were discontinued and that she is not in the service of the Corporation.

Recording the said submission of the learned Standing Counsel, since the petitioner is not entitled to the relief sought for in the writ petition, the writ petition fails and it is accordingly dismissed, but in the circumstances without costs.
